Ready? Set? Let's "GO TO 2040"

ELMHURST, IL — As Chicagoland prepares to celebrate the centennial of Daniel Burnham's "Plan for Chicago," The Elmhurst Public Library is part of the next plan for Chicago, "Go To 2040."

The Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP) is holding a series of "Community Conversation" forums around the Chicago area. Elmhurst residents are encouraged to attend one of the two meetings on Monday, November 17th either from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. or from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Held in Meeting Room 2 of the library, located at 125 S. Prospect Avenue in Elmhurst, the forum will promote ideas and brainstorming to help positively move the Chicagoland area into the future.

For the rest of this century, the plan which will be developed from information gathered at forums like these will guide transportation and development patterns, and also will address the natural environment, economic development, housing, and human services such as education, health care and other social services.

For more information about "Go To 2040," visit www.goto2040.org and for information about CMAP, contact Diana Torres at 312-386-8774 or dtorres@cmmap.illinois.gov. For more information about the Elmhurst Public Library "Go To 2040" program, call 630-279-8696.
