Elmhurst Public Library Celebrates 100 Years with Before-Hours Pancake Party

ELMHURST, IL — Elmhurst Public Library patrons are invited to a special before-hours Pancake Party for all ages to celebrate EPL's 100th birthday. Guests will have access to the Library before it opens on Sunday, March 13.

Bring the family to enjoy a morning at the Library before everyone else arrives! There will be fun activities, music performances, and more. Dress in your "Sunday Best" and get an old-timey souvenir picture to take home. The sounds of York High School musicians performing in ensembles throughout the building might draw you to a yet undiscovered corner of the Library. Do you remember the day you got your first Library card? Reminisce with others who love the Library as much as you do!

A special Pancake Party is the highlight of the day's events. You get a short-stack of pancakes and coffee or juice, which you can enjoy anywhere in the building. There are two seatings: 9-10:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Pick up tickets in advance with your valid Elmhurst Public Library card. Tickets are limited and on a first come, first serve basis. For more information, visit www.elmlib.org/100.

Elmhurst Public Library enriches life in Elmhurst by providing opportunities to connect, create, and explore. EPL provides the support, resources, and environment for Elmhurst patrons to: pursue a love of reading; access information; explore interests; engage with technology; connect with others; and create and innovate. Elmhurst Public Library is the place for discovery at the heart of the community.
