

POLICY ON USE OF MEETING ROOMS

The Elmhurst Public Library welcomes the use of its meeting rooms by community groups when such use will not interfere with the primary functions of the Library. As a limited public forum, Library meeting room use will not be denied to any person or organization because of race, creed, or color. The Library Board subscribes to the tenets of the Library Bill of Rights, which states in part: "Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use." Use of the meeting room does not constitute Library endorsement of the viewpoints expressed by the participants in the programs.

First priority for use of the meeting rooms is given to Library-sponsored meetings or programs. The following groups also may use meeting rooms for cultural, civic, and informal educational purposes:

- Library-related groups
- Elmhurst governmental organizations
- Elmhurst not-for-profit organizations or corporations.
- Elmhurst non-business related local clubs or organizations
- Elmhurst businesses (for a fee).

Meeting rooms may not be used for gatherings of a purely social nature.

In each case, an adult Elmhurst Public Library cardholder must take responsibility for the group's use of the room. All users are responsible for complying with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act, which require that a meeting or materials at a meeting be provided in an accessible format in response to a request.

All meetings must be open to the public, and groups may not charge admission, solicit, or require donations for their meetings. No products or services may be promoted, solicited, or sold except at Library-sponsored events.

Meetings shall not interfere with the public's use of the Library in any way. Examples of such interference include, but are not limited to, excessive size, noise, activity outside the meeting room, or any other disturbance that violates the Public Conduct Policy. Library administrative staff is authorized to deny use of a meeting room at their sole discretion based on the anticipated availability of parking space at the requested time or other factors which may impair the public's access to library services.

The Library reserves the right to modify this policy and to cancel any reservation due to unforeseen circumstances. The Library may also cancel a group's reservation(s) if the meeting room policy is violated.
