

COMPLAINTS FROM THE PUBLIC

All complaints from the public will receive a timely and thoughtful response if a patron includes contact information. If an issue cannot be resolved immediately, the person's written complaint and contact information will be forwarded to the appropriate supervisor or the Director for a response.

If the complaint concerns a book or other item in the Library collection, see the Collection Management Policy in this manual (6.1).