

Building Valuation

The Board asked me to look into a building appraisal. I contacted our agent who reassured me that she uses standard tools to confirm the building valuation each year. She gave me a few recommendations for companies who will perform a more formal appraisal. I contacted one company and they gave me a ballpark figure of $3,800 for building and contents appraisal. If the Board decides to pursue an appraisal, I will contact 2-3 companies for best price.