ADULT + HIGH SCHOOL SUMMER READING

ADULT + HIGH SCHOOL SUMMER READING STARTS JUNE 2

I Am Malala by Malala Yousafzai

■ Thursday, July 12 • 7-8:15 p.m. • Gathering Room

■ Tuesday, July 17 • 1-2:15 p.m. • Meeting Room B

When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. On October 9, 2012, fifteen-year-old Malala was shot in the head at point-blank range while riding the bus home from school, and few expected her to survive. Instead, Yousafzai's miraculous recovery has taken her on an extraordinary journey. At sixteen, she became a global symbol of peaceful protest and at 17, was the youngest person to be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. This is the remarkable tale of a family uprooted by global terrorism, of the fight for girls' education, of brave parents who have a fierce love for their daughter in a society that prizes sons. I Am Malala will make you believe in the power of one person's voice to inspire change in the world. Register starting June 2 in person or by phone. Pick up a copy of the book when you register.

Read the One Book, One Community title and get an extra raffle ticket for the Summer Reading raffle! (info at right)

About the Author

Malala Yousafzai is a Pakistani student and activist who began speaking out for girls' education at the age of 11. After surviving an assassination attempt by the Taliban at 15, she co-founded the Malala Fund with her father. She is the youngest ever Nobel Laureate. Malala is currently enrolled at the University of Oxford, where she is studying philosophy, politics, and economics. She balances her school work and social life with leading the fight for girls' education around the world.

How Do You Read?

There are many ways to experience Malala Yousafzai's story: I Am Malala is available at the Library in print, audio, playaway, or digital formats. COMMON CONNECTION: MOVEMENTS

The Common Connection

The Common Connection is a series of programs using film, discussion, and critical thinking to identify topics that influence the world today – no matter who we are. Coming together at the Library to learn and discuss these complex issues is the first step towards forging a deeper understanding of the world around us and the unique individuals who comprise our community. This issue's topic is Movements.

A Movement is hard to identify at its beginning. An idea is born out of idealism or conflict, and if the time is right, extenuating circumstances conspire to build that idea into one that spreads; it might change a community, or the world. Engage with community members to see the way movements happen all around us and understand the power they have to shape our world: past, present, and future.

Activism in America:

The Path from the Birmingham
Bus Boycott to #MeToo

Thursday, July 26 • 7-8:30 p.m.

Large Meeting Room

Our country was conceived out of activism—the organized resistance of many colonists toward government actions they deemed harmful. In the 20th century, activism evolved to confront issues that were national in scope and required a change in attitude—civil rights, Vietnam war legitimacy and women's liberation. The 21st century found activism leveraging the internet and social media to spread messages. Professor Gary Midkiff explores the evolution of activism and what it may look like in the future. Registration required.

GreenMan Theatre Troupe:

Folktales About Justice

Wednesday, Aug. 1 • 7-8 p.m.

Large Meeting Room

Come hear folktales about justice presented by Elmhurst's own GreenMan Theatre. Registration required.

Large Meeting Room • Age 55+

Learn about the culture and customs of the featured region through a guest speaker and a sampling of the country's cuisine. VIP: Each participant must register in person or by phone with their own Library card.

Civically Speaking:

Civics in the 21st Century

Monday, Aug. 13 • 7-8 p.m.

Large Meeting Room

Civics is the study of the rights and duties of citizenship. However, can civics be civil? Has there ever been another time in our history when the structure of our government was challenged? Hear what it once meant and still means to be an American citizen. Presented by Terry Lynch. Registration required.

KIDS' SUMMER READING

Why Participate in Summer Reading?

Summer is a chance for families to spend more time together, share new experiences, and relax after a busy school year. Is it really so important that your child be part of the Library's summer reading program? The answer from education experts is a resounding "YES!"

Homeroom, the official blog of the U.S. Department of Education, offers tips to keep your child from becoming a rusty reader over the summer:

- Encourage your children to read books they enjoy at least 30 minutes per day. Your child will likely be more engrossed in material they choose themselves than material that is forced on them.
- Provide incentives for reluctant readers.
- Make reading a social act. Establish a time during the day when all members of the family gather and read on their own, or take turns reading the same book aloud.
- Connect your reading to family outings. If you take your kids to an aquarium, read a book about fish with them later that day.

User Story

Lifelong Reader Thanks to Kids' Library + Paddington

When Mike was a kid, he visited Wilder Mansion, the home of Elmhurst Public Library. He discovered that the Summer Reading Program prize was a stuffed Paddington Bear.

He wanted that bear! Walking up to the Kids' Help Desk, he announced that he read two books. When asked what he read, he could not answer—because he had not actually read anything.

Finding out that he needed to read five books, he set out to do just that—he really wanted that Paddington. Mike found out that he loved reading, and forgot all about the prize. However, he was thrilled when he found out he won the bear.

Mike became a lifelong reader and is all grown up. Now, besides books, he asks reference questions and conducts research for film scripts and TV series. He edits and designs projects in the Creative Studio. (elmlib.org/creativestudio)

"The Library is my home away from home," said Mike.

PLAYAWAY launchpad

Pre-loaded with high-quality, ad-free learning apps, the Playaway Launchpad is durable enough to move from the hands of one explorer to the next. Each tablet features a curated selection of content focused on a single topic and age group.

ONE BOOK ONE COMMUNITY

I Am Malala by Malala Yousafzai

■ Thursday, July 12 • 7-8:15 p.m. • Gathering Room

■ Tuesday, July 17 • 1-2:15 p.m. • Meeting Room B

When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. On October 9, 2012, fifteen-year-old Malala was shot in the head at point-blank range while riding the bus home from school, and few expected her to survive. Instead, Yousafzai's miraculous recovery has taken her on an extraordinary journey. At sixteen, she became a global symbol of peaceful protest and at 17, was the youngest person to be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. This is the remarkable tale of a family uprooted by global terrorism, of the fight for girls' education, of brave parents who have a fierce love for their daughter in a society that prizes sons. I Am Malala will make you believe in the power of one person's voice to inspire change in the world. Register starting June 2 in person or by phone. Pick up a copy of the book when you register.
