Library Program Celebrates “Women of World War II: On the Front Lines and the Home Front”

ELMHURST, IL — During World War II, American women took on many new roles, both in the military and as civilians. Learn how women made incredible contributions to the war effort, including through the American Red Cross Clubmobile program. This club served up doughnuts, coffee, and American girl-next-door friendliness at the front lines in Europe, Southeast Asia, India, and Australia — wherever the troops were found.

Elmhurst Author Barb Warner Deane delves into the roles of American Women during World War II and the Clubmobile program on Thursday, March 1 from 7-8 p.m. at the Elmhurst Public Library. Her novel, On The Homefront, will be available for purchase at the end of the program. Register for this free event at elmlib.org/register, in person, or by calling (630) 279-8696.
